Characteristics

Up in the highlands of Chanchamayo in Peru, the peasant farmers of the Selva Alta cooperative grow our top-quality Arabica beans organically.

We pay them fair prices and then decaffeinate their coffee beans with water and steam in a particularly gentle process. After that, we have the our "Rudi" coffee beans roasted by Dinzler slowly and masterfully until they reveal their full-bodied taste.

Rudi is versatile, fresh and stands out for his walnut aroma with a fine vanilla note.
